Knit my most precious Treasures

Original title: Strikk mine fineste skatter
Publisher: Gyldendal Forlag 2020
Non Fiction / Hobby/Hand craft

Kari Hestnes has worked as a knitting designer for almost 40 years and has published 13 books on knitting. In Knits - My finest treasures, she takes a deep dive into her treasure chest to share with you her very finest sweaters, jackets and tops. Here you will find everything from beautiful patterned knitwear to classic braided sweaters, feminine tops and colourful cardigans. The garments vary in difficulty, and you will find something for every occasion. The patterns are made in five sizes and are easy to understand.

Kari is known for her focus on lovely details, good cuts and her playful use of colour. The book is spiced with Kari's own nature photography. Be inspired!

Kari Hestnes

Kari Hestnes has worked with knitwear design since the mid-1980s and has published a number of books on knitting. In 1998, she established the wholesale company Du Store Alpaka together with her husband Per Svendsen, where they introduced alpaca to the Norwegian knitting market. The company was sold in 2012, and since then Kari has sold her colourful designs via her own website, www.karihdesign.com.
