

Stilton Literary Agency

Knitting for Babies and Knitting for Children from Paelas

Original title: Babystrikk fra Paelas
Publisher: Gyldendal Forlag 2018
Non Fiction / Hobby/Hand craft

Two books from the Norwegian knitwear firm Paelas. In Knitting for Children you'll find around fifty patterns for boys and girls, from new-borns up to eight years old. In Knitting for Babies the little ones are the focus with thirty patterns for babies and toddlers up to three years old.

The patterns make use of a range of knitting techniques with varying levels of difficulty, and the authors present knitwear designs with inspiring colours, moods, structures and wool qualities. The books also contain thorough instructions on how to knit.

Foreign rights

Danmark, Turbine

Frida Farstad Brevik, Siri Hoftun and Trude Melhus Rognstad

Frida Farstad Brevik was born in 1983. She grew up in Molde, and currently lives there with her husband and two young children. Her educational background is in political science and social geography, and she holds a master's degree in law. She works as a lawyer within government administration.

Siri Hoftun was born in 1980. She grew up in Sauda, but now lives in Trondheim with her partner and four children. She is a qualified psychologist in the public health system, and also gives lectures about diabetes and psychology. She has previously contributed to the book Knitting for Mum and Me.

Trude Melhus Rognstad was born in 1982 in Trondheim, but currently lives in Oslo with her husband and three daughters. Trude is a qualified psychologist, and now works at an easy-access service run by the local municipality.