The Camp School Mystery

Original title: Leirskolemysteriet
Publisher: Kagge Forlag 2021
Fiction children 7-12 years / Mystery, crime

On the bus trip to the camp school, they check out the place on their mobile phones. They find out that there has been a theft that is being investigated, at the school where they are going. A valuable object has disappeared without a trace. "Traceless" is the word that triggers them, because even though it was snowing heavily when the theft was reported, there were no traces in the snow of a perpetrator leaving the place. There are rumors about the school being haunted...
