

Stilton Literary Agency

Ingunn Birkeland crochets

Original title: Ingunn Birkeland hekler
Publisher: Handverk Forlag 2024
Non-Fiction / Hobby/Hand craft

INGUNN BIRKELAND CROCHETS .A new fantastic and colorful title by one of Norway's most well known designers!

In her latest book, Ingunn offers 25 colorful crochet patterns for summer dresses, bags, hats, tops, bikinis, alpine hats, jackets, bathrobes, placemats, tea towels, potholders and rugs. The well-known check pattern CITY is repeated in several garments, and in addition, the book offers stripes, ruffles, mesh, granny checks and crochet in leftover materials.

The design of the garments is a continuation of the visual expression in the first two books; INGUNN BIRKELAND KNITS and INGUNN BIRKELAND SEWS.

Foreign rights

Bogoo Books, Denmark

Ingunn Birkeland

Ingunn Birkeland is a designer from Oslo who is known for her unique, colorful interlacement patterns. She has a very special flair for combining colors, lines, shapes and materials. She is a trained clothing designer from the Norwegian School of Crafts and Design (today KHiO). After completing her master's degree (MA) at the Department of Clothing and Costumes in 2005, she established the brand INGUNN BIRKELAND OSLO (IBO). She is known for her characteristic braids and grid patterns, in a carefully composed and balanced color palette.

Other titles

Ingunn Birkeland is Sewing (2023)

Ingunn Birkeland is knitting (2022)